A Hawaiian Getaway Giveaway x 12!

A Dozen Chances to Win and Why

Kailua-Kona, Hawai'i's Big Island (January 15, 2010) – King Kamehameha's Kona Beach Hotel has a lot to celebrate this year, and to do that, the resort is giving away a free Three-Night Hawaiian Getaway each month, complete with a $100 Food Credit. Lucky winners will experience exciting upgrades at the hotel, including a complete room renovation, new infinity pool, and more.

For Hawaiian Getaway Giveaway details and to enter, please visit www.konabeachhotel.com, or find us on Facebook® to discover more.

The iconic resort has a lot to celebrate in 2010 ... here are a dozen reasons why:

1. All 230 rooms in the West Tower are “new” – new furnishings, bathrooms, and more! Rooms in the East Tower will be completed mid-February
2. New infinity pool overlooks Kamakahonu Bay, Kailua-Kona's only white sand beach
3. New Bar
4. Renovated public areas, including new retail shops and the lobby to be completed soon
5. More than 100 new parking stalls
6. Visit culturally rich sites – both on and off property
7. Located in the heart of historic Kailua Village, within walking distance to shops, restaurants, and activities
8. Popular Island Breeze Lū'au
9. Excellent snorkeling, kayaking, swimming, and stand-up paddle board action
10. Complimentary Kona coffee and coffee makers in every room
11. Complimentary wireless Internet
12. New mini refrigerator, and large flat-screen television in every room

... and that's just a dozen!

King Kamehameha's Kona Beach Hotel is a 454-room resort located on 13 beachfront acres. Adjacent to Kailua Pier on the Big Island's sunny Kona coast, the area comprises a significant historical site, King Kamehameha the Great's final residence. Conveniently located at the start of famous Ali'i Drive, the resort is within walking distance to many other cultural sites, restaurants, shopping, and more. King Kamehameha's Kona Beach Hotel is a proud sponsor of the Hawaiian International Billfish Tournament, the annual Kona Brewers Festival, the Ford Ironman World Championship Triathlon, and other signature local, national, and international events.
